Pegasus Airlines embarks on a development programme for operational excellence in collaboration with Aviation Partners and Specialists (APS) led by Captain Andy O'SHEA (FRAeS).

Pegasus Airlines CEO Mr. Mehmet T. NANE said "We are pleased to announce a partnership with Captain Andy O'Shea, and his team of experienced specialists, Aviation Partners and Specialists (APS) on a development program designed to give our airline the strongest possible platform for operations for the forthcoming decade. APS is able to provide outstanding expertise through a team of specialists led by Andy, and so is the perfect partner in this project. The program is well advanced and will accelerate further when COVID-19 travel restrictions are lifted."

APS CEO Captain Andy O'SHEA said "It is one year since I established this consultancy, and I could not have hoped for a more exciting project to prove the concept of APS. APS is designed to work with ATOs and Operators, especially EASA TCO Airlines, who want to attain the highest standards. Our team of highly experienced Specialists are able to tackle any area that needs development including Recruitment and Assessment, Training, Operations, Safety and Compliance Management. Working closely with Mehmet T. Nane and his excellent team, we have made a great start to this project and we are looking forward to spending time with our Pegasus colleagues in Istanbul and elsewhere in Turkey over the next several months."
